

Name: _____ Date: _____

Science Assessment Year 1: Seasonal Changes

total marks

1. A tree that looks different in each season is called a deciduous tree. Draw a line from each tree to the season it belongs to.

spring

summer

autumn

winter

4

2. Can you put the names of the seasons in the correct boxes?

March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December	January	February

4

3. What season am I?

Halloween falls in my season.

The leaves are starting to turn brown. _____

Can you think of another event or something else that happens during this season? _____

1

4. What season am I?

Baby animals are often born during this season. Plants begin to grow. _____

Can you think of another event or something else that happens during this season? _____

1

1

Total for this page

5. What season am I?

The longest day is in this season.

It is usually the warmest season. _____

Can you think of another event or something else that happens during this season? _____

6. What season am I?

The shortest day is in this season. _____

It is often very cold

Can you think of another event or something else that happens during this season? _____

7. In which season would you find the following? Draw a line from the season to the correct picture.

spring

summer

autumn

winter

8. Name two ways in which you can stay safe in the summer weather?

- _____
- _____

1

1

1

1

1

5

Total for this page

9. The weather changes across the seasons. In which seasons would you most likely expect to wear the following clothes?

2

10. Match the season to the sentence that describes it.

Autumn

The weather is getting warmer and the days are getting longer.

Summer

It is getting colder and the days are getting shorter.

Winter

It is usually warm and the days are long.

Spring

The days are short and it is usually cold.

4

Total for this page